

Example Text

This is an example text

I get carried away with this brush cleaning. We're trying to teach you a technique here and how to use it. Little trees and bushes grow however makes them happy. If you do too much it's going to lose its effectiveness.

Anyone can paint. Let's make some happy little clouds in our world. Just think about these things in your mind and drop em' on canvas. Don't hurry. Take your time and enjoy.

If we're gonna walk though the woods, we need a little path. Imagination is the key to painting. And I know you're saying, 'Oh Bob, you've done it this time.' And you may be right. Poor old tree. We don't have to be committed. We are just playing here.

Just relax and let it flow. That easy. Let's get crazy. Put it in, leave it alone. In nature, dead trees are just as normal as live trees.

It's all a game of angles. Maybe there was an old trapper that lived out here and maybe one day he went to check his beaver traps, and maybe he fell into the river and drowned. We'll have a super time.

Let's put some happy trees and bushes back in here. Isn't that fantastic? You can just push a little tree out of your brush like that. I guess that would be considered a UFO. A big cotton ball in the sky. All kinds of happy little splashes.

Making all those little fluffies that live in the clouds. Let's have a little bit of fun today. We have all at one time or another mixed some mud.